CLUB NEWS

Monday's Program

YMCA CEO Diane Hart-Dawson addressed her fellow Rotarians Monday. The Y has 3400 members with 80 employees and a $1.5 million budget. It was the first Y in the state to offer 24/7 availability to its members. Diane reviewed the Y's many programs. She was especially happy to report that the Y's preschool is now licensed. The 21st Century Program provides after school care and the feeding program has expanded to year-round, serving nearly 22,000 meals last year. The Y's pool is also put to good use for lessons, adult exercise and safety classes. Diane thanked the club for being a banner sponsor.

All Indiana Conference

The deadline to sign up has been extended to April 14. Check out the schedule, speakers and service opportunities at www.AllINRotary.org. If you cannot attend but would like to help with a service project you can bring a pair of new children's tennis shoes to next week's meeting. Conference attendees will be sorting, tagging and bagging the shoes for Shoe Closets, Inc. This Indianapolis-based charity provides new tennis shoes to needy kids in Indianapolis and surrounding school districts.

Euchre Tournament Winner

Joe Taylor was our winner of the 2018 Euchre Tournament. He was given his trophy at the end of the day but in the excitement he left it behind. Joe was a guest at our meeting Monday and Jennifer Sturges made sure he got his trophy back. Joe has been a supporter of the tournament for many years. He gave a portion of his $1000 winnings to the club to donate to Special Olympics. Joe spoke highly of our club and the tournament. He'll be back next year to defend his title!

Rotary Road Cleanup

Rotary road cleanup was cancelled last week due to the cold and wet conditions. It has been rescheduled for Saturday, April 28, in conjunction with the Greensburg Cleansburg project. Sign up next week or contact Chris Christianson with any questions: 812-593-4452 or chris@greensignco.com.

Next Week's Program

Greensburg city engineer Ron May will be our speaker next week.
